This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

INTRODUCTORY.

Jesus spake as one having authority; he spake as never man spake. His words are spirit and they are life.

What he says, then, upon the various subjects that frequently fill our minds will be most profitable to all who are striving to know and to follow him.

To show what he teaches is the object of this volume. It has been simply a growth of compilations springing from the demand which the Christian and teacher must feel in order to know and to communicate the truth as it is in Christ.

The difficulties, doubts, trials, cares, sickness and sorrows prevalent in every parish, have been the experiences which have influenced the gradual arrangement of these topics, and this final offering to a more extended usefulness.

The arrangement is simple. The utterances of the Savior have been classified, that those pertaining to any particular theme may be seen together.

So far as they can be ascertained, the persons to whom these utterances were made, and the places where they were spoken, have been cited underneath each extract, a feature which cannot fail to carry with it much valuable instruction. Where omissions of such notice occur the reference is to the next preceding extract.

It is believed that all recorded words of the Savior are given, excepting the omission of some simple connectives.

The aim has not been to give prominence to the incidents which occasioned the remarks; but only to clearly set forth the words which the Master spoke, on each occasion of which we have the record. In some few instances, therefore, the idea may seem vaguely expressed, but these instances are few.

Where two or more of the Evangelists have related the same occurrence, but with some mere verbal difference the remarks are not repeated.

Much labor has been bestowed to render the index so full that it may respond to any subject whereon it may be consulted. Some may discover that some of the references illy apply to topics under which they are quoted. Perhaps no two compilers would arrange indices precisely alike, especially on matters of sentiment.

Many can be really familiar with but comparatively a small portion of the Word, and the aim of this work is to place in convenient form the most precious of all teaching, and this with the hope that the interest attending its use may create a desire for further "searching the scriptures to see if these things be so." It is sent forth with the prayer that it may aid many to say with gratitude, "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path."

16. ATONEMENT.

Expiation.—Reconciliation.

And I will say to my soul; soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry. For whether is greater the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold? And, "whosoever shall swear by the altar it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gift, that is upon the altar, he is guilty." Ye fools and blind. For whether is greater the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift? Whoso, therefore, shall swear by the altar, sweareth by it and by all things thereon. And whoso shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein. And he that sweareth by heaven, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

Therefore, when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues, and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you they have their reward. But when thou doest thine alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth, that thine alms may be in secret, and thy Father who seeth in secret, himself shall reward thee openly.

Mat. 18:10.

To the disciples—Capernaum.

Whoso receiveth one such little child in my name receiveth me. But whoso shall offend one of these little ones, who believeth in me, it were better that a mill-stone were hanged about his neck and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

Mat. 18:15.

To the disciples,—Capernaum.

The Christian must be childlike.

Verily I say unto you except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. Whosoever, therefore, shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in in the kingdom of heaven.

Mat. 18:3.

38. CHRIST.

Jesus.—Lord.—Messiah.—Redeemer.—Savior.

View of, all important.

Mat. 22:42.

Martha, Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things: but one thing is needful, and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

Luke 10: 41.

At Bethany.

Is the only way of salvation.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep. To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice; and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out. And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him; for they know his voice. And a stranger will they not follow, for they know not the voice of strangers.

Jno. 10: 1.

To the multitude,—Jerusalem.

I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness.

Jno. 12: 46.

I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also; no man cometh unto the Father but by me.

Jno. 14: 6.

To the disciples,—Jerusalem.

Not to live in Christ is to be destroyed.

If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

Jno. 15: 6.

Is one with God.

Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? He that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, show us the Father? Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? The words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself; but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father in me; or else believe me for the very works' sake.

Jno. 14: 9.

To Philip—Jerusalem.

Many good works have I showed you from my Father; for which of these works do ye stone me? * * Is it not written in your law, "I said, Ye are gods"? If he called them gods unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken, say ye of him whom the Father hath sanctified and sent into the world, "Thou blasphemest," because I said, "I am the Son of God"? If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not. But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works; that ye may know and believe that I am in the Father and the Father in me.

Jno. 10: 32, 34.

To the Jews—Jerusalem.

I told you, and ye believed not; the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me. But ye believe not, because ye are not my sheep, as I said unto you. My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. My Father who gave them me is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand. I and my Father are one.

Jno. 10: 25.

Ye neither know me, nor my Father; if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.

Jno. 8: 19

My Father worketh hitherto, and I work. * * Verily, verily, I say unto you, the Son can do nothing of himself but what he seeth the Father do; for what things soever he doeth, these also, doeth the Son, likewise. For the Father loveth the Son, and showeth him all thing that himself doeth; and he will show him greater works than these, that ye may marvel. For as the Father raiseth up the dead and quickeneth them, even so the Son quickeneth whom he will. For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son; that all men should honor the Son, even as they honor the Father. He that honoreth not the Son, honoreth not the Father who hath sent him.

Jno. 5: 17, 19.

As the Father hath life in himself, so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself. I can of mine own self do nothing; as I hear, I judge; and my judgment is just, because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father who hath sent me.

Jno. 5: 26, 30.

At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you. He that hath my commandments and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me; and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.

Now I tell you before it is come, that when it is come ye may believe that I am he.

Jno. 13 : 19.

To the disciples,—Jerusalem.

If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true. There is another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true. Ye sent unto John, and he bare witness unto the truth. But I receive not testimony from man; but these things I say that ye might be saved. He was a burning and a shining light; and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light. But I have greater witness than that of John; for the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me that the Father hath sent me. And the Father himself who hath sent me hath beborne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time nor seen his finish." Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand? Or else, while the other is a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and desireth conditions of peace. Responsibility of.

A certain nobleman went into a far country, to receive for himself a kingdom and to return, And he called his two servants and delivered to them ten pounds, and said unto them, "Occupy till I come." But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, "We will not have this man to reign over us." And it came to pass that, when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading. Then came the first, saying, "Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds." And he said unto him, "Well, thou good servant; because thou hast been faithful over a very little, have thou authority over ten cities." And the second came, saying, "Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds." And he said likewise to him, "Be thou also over five cities." And another came, saying, "Lord, here is thy pound, which I have kept wrapped up in a napkin; for I feared thee, because thou art an austere man; thou takedst up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow." And he said unto him, "Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant; thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down and reaping that I did not sow. Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury?" And he said unto them that stood by, "Take from him the pound, and give it unto him that hath ten pounds." (And they say unto him, "Lord, he hath ten pounds.") "For I say unto you, unto every one who hath shall be given; and from him that hath not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him. But those mine enemies who would not that I shonld reign over them, bring hither and slay them before me."

Wherefore if God so clothe the grass of the field which to-day is and to-morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith? Therefore take no

To the thief,—on the cross.

Is to be glorified.

The hour is come that the Son of man should be glorified. Verily, verily, I say unto you, except a corn of wheat fall into the ground, it abideth alone; but if it die it bringeth forth much fruit. Jno. 13: 36.

To Peter,—Jerusalem.

We prefer thinking of others', than of our own.

Suppose ye that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, because they suffered such things. I tell you nay; but except ye repent ye shall all likewise perish. Or those eighteen upon whom the tower in Siloam fell and slew them: think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem? I tell you nay; but except ye repent ye shall all likewise perish.

Luke 13: 2.

To the multitude,—Galilee.

Christ foretells his own.

Jno. 17:1.

Last prayer with the disciples.

To be rejoiced in.

Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father; for my Father is greater than I. And now I have told you before it come to pass, that when it is come to pass ye might believe. Hereafter I will not talk much with you; for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me. But that the world may know that I love the Father; and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.

Mat. 13: 20.

To the disciples,—Lake Galilee.

Must be deliberate.

Which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it? Lest haply, after he hath laid the foundation and is not able to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him, saying, "This man began to build, and was not able to finish." Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand? Or else, while the other is a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and desireth conditions of peace. So likewise whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he can not be my disciple.

thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established. And if he should neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church; but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as a heathen man and a publican.

64. DISAPPOINTMENT.

Of many at the judgment.

Not every one that saith unto me, "Lord, Lord," shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father who is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, "Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works?" And then will I profess unto them, "I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity."

65. DISCIPLES.

69. DISHONESTY.

Fraud.—Knavery.—Shrewdness.

An example of.

There was a certain rich man, who had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods. And he called him and said unto him, "How is it that I hear this of thee? Give an account of thy stewardship: for thou mayest be no longer steward." Then the steward said within himself, "What shall I do? For my lord taketh away from me the stewardship; I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed. I am resolved what to do, that when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses. So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, "How much owest thou unto my lord?" And he said, "A hundred measures of oil." And he said unto him, "Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty." "Then said he to another, "And how much owest thou?" And he said, "A hundred measures of wheat." And he said unto him, "Take thy bill, and write fourscore." And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely; for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light. And I say unto you, "Make unto yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness, that when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations. He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much; and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much. If, therefore, ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own?

70. DIVISIONS.

Discord.—Disunion.

May occur in families.

Think not that I am come to send peace on the earth. I came not to send peace, but a sword; for I am come to set a man at vari ance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter-in law against her mother-in-law; and a man's foes shall be they of his own household. He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me.

Mat. 10: 34.

71. DIVORCE.

Marriage.

Forbidden, with one exception.

Have ye not read that he who made them at the beginning made them male and female? And said, for this cause shall a man leave father and mother; and they twain shall be one flesh. Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What, therefore, God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. Moses, because of the hardness of your hearts, suffered you to put away your wives; but from the beginning it was not so; and I say unto you, whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery, and whoso marrieth her that is put away doth commit adultery.

Mat. 19: 4, 8.

To the disciples,—Perea.

It hath been said, whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement; but I say unto you that whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery; and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced committeth adultery.

And another said; "I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them; I pray thee have me excused." And another said: "I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come." So that servant came and showed his lord these things. Then the master of the house, being angry, said to his servant; "Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind." And the servant said; "lord it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room." Mark 11: 25.

To the disciples,—near Jerusalem.

The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a certain king who would take account of his servants. And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents; but forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and all that he had, payment to be made. The servant, therefore, fell down and worshipped him, saying; "Lord have patience with me, and I will pay thee all." Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him and forgave him the debt. But the same servant went out and found one of his fellow-servants, who owed him a hundred pence, and he laid hands on him and took him by the throat, saying; "Pay me what thou owest." And his fellow-servant fell down at his feet and besought him saying; "have patience with me and I will pay thee all." And he would not but went and cast him into prison, until he should pay the debt. So when his fellow-servants saw what was done they were sorry, and came and told their lord all that was done. Then his lord after that he had called him, said unto him; "O thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt because thou desiredst me; shouldst not thou also have had compassion on thy fellow servant, even as I had pity on thee? "And his lord was wroth and delivered him to the tormentors till he should pay all that was due unto him. So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you if ye from your hearts forgive not, every one his brother their trespasses.

Go, therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

Mat. 28 : 19.

To the Apostles,—Galilee.

Blasphemy against not to be forgiven.

I say unto you, all manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men; but the blasphemy against the Holy Spirit shall not be forgiven unto men. And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him, but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come.

If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me. * * He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet but is clean every whit; and ye are clean but not all.

Jno. 13: 8, 10.

To Peter,—Jerusalem.

See Christ, 38 ; Humility, 120.

120. HUMILITY.

Diffidence.—Lowliness.—Modesty.

A Christian grace.

The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord. It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord.

Mat. 10 : 24.

To the Twelve,—Galilee.

Be not ye called "Rabbi?" for one is your Master even Christ; and all ye are brethren. And call no man your Father upon the earth; for one is your Father who is in heaven. Neither be ye called masters, for one is your Master even Christ. But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant. And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and he that shall humble himself shall be exalted.

Mat. 23 : 8.

To the multitude,—Jerusalem.

You know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them. But it shall not be so among you; but whosoever will be great among you let him be your minister. And whosoever will be chief among you let him be your servant; even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto but to minister. and to give his life for many.

Jno. 5: 41, 44.

When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room; lest a more honorable man than thou be bidden of him; and he that bade thee and him come and say to thee; "Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room. But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee; "Friend go up higher," then shalt thou have worship in the presence of them who sit at meat with thee. For whosoever exalteth himself, shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted. Luke 14; 8.

To the Pharisee's dinner guests,—Perea.

Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself; "God, I thank thee that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican. I fast twice in a week; I give tithes of all that I possess." And the publican standing afar off would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast saying; "God be merciful unto me, a sinner;" I tell you this man went down to his house justified, rather than the other.

Luke 18: 10.

To the disciples.

Christ an example of.

Know ye what I have done unto you? Ye call me "Master," and "Lord;" and ye say well; for so I am. If I, then, your Lord and Master have washed your feet, ye also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done unto you. Verily, verily, I say unto you; the servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.

Jno. 13: 12.

121. HYPOCRISY.

Conceit.— Deceit.— Dissembling.— Dissimulation.—Feigning.—Flattery.

Condemned.

Woe unto you Scribes, and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye build the tombs of the Prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous, and say; "If we had been in the days of our fathers we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets." Wherefore be ye witnesses unto yourselves, that ye are the children of them who killed the prophets. Fill ye up, then, the measure of your Fathers. Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the damnation of hell!

Mat. 23: 29.

To the Scribes and Pharisees,—Jerusalem.

Woe unto you Scribes, and Pharisee, hypocrites? for ye pay tithe of mint and anise, and cummin. and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy and faith; these ought ye to have done and not to leave the other undone. Ye blind guides who strain at a gnat and swallow a camel? Woe unto you Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess. Thou blind Pharisee! cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also. Woe unto you, Scribes, and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness; even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity. Mat. 23: 23.

Wo unto you Scribes, and Pharisees, hypocrites, for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretense make long prayers; therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation. Mat. 23; 14.

Ye hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophecy of you, saying; "This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, but their heart is far from me.

Hell is the punishment for.

The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of, and shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hppocrites; there shall be weep ing and gnashing of teeth.

Mat. 24: 50.

To the disciples,—Mount of Olives.

Warning.

How wilt thou say to thy brother; "Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye," and behold a beam is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out of thy brother's eye.

Many false prophets shall arise, and shall deceive many.

Mat. 24: 11.

To the disciples,—Mount of Olives.

If any man shall say unto you; "Lo, here is Christ, or there," believe it not. For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall show great signs and wonders; inasmuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.

v. 23.

Not every one that saith unto me; "Lord, Lord," shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father who is in heaven. Many will say to me on that day; "Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils?" And then will I profess unto them; "I never knew you; depart from me ye that work iniquity.

When it is evening, ye say; "It will be fair weather, for the sky is red." And in the morning; "It will be foul weather to-day for the sky is red and lowering." O, ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky; but can ye not discern the signs of the times? A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign, but there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jonah. Mat. 16: 2.

Why call ye me "Lord," and do not the things which I say? Luke 6: 46.

Sermon on the Mount,—near Capernaum.

Directions against.

Take heed that ye do not your alms before men to be seen of them; otherwise ye have no reward of your Father who is in heaven. Therefore when thou doest thine alms do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets. Verily I say unto thee, they have their reward. Mat. 6: 1.

And when thou prayest thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are; for they love to pray standing in the synagogue, and in the corner of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you they have their reward.

Moreover, when ye fast be not as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance, for they disfigure their faces that they may appear un to men to fast. Verily I say unto you they have their reward.

Mat. 6: 5, 16.

Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them. Mat. 7: 20.

Beware of false prophets who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thornes, or figs of thistles?

Mat. 7: 15.

122. IGNORANCE.

Spiritual may be among the learned.

Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things? Verily, verily, I say unto thee. We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen, and ye receive not our witness. If I have told you earthly things and ye believe not, how shall ye believe if I tell you of heavenly things. And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man who is in heaven.

Jno. 3: 10.

To Nicodemus,—Jerusalem.

Illustrated.

Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins who took their lamps and went forth to meet the bridegroom. And five of them were wise and five were foolish. They that were foolish took their lamps and took no oil with them. But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. While the bridegroom tarried they all slumbered and slept. And at midnight there was a cry made, "Behold the bridegroom cometh, go ye out to meet him. Then all those virgins arose and trimmed their lamps. And the foolish said unto the wise; "Give us of your oil, for our lamps are gone out. But the wise answered, saying; "Not so, lest there be not enough for us and you; but go ye rather to them that sell and buy for yourselves." And while they went to buy the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage, and the door was shut. Afterward came also the other virgins, saying; "Lord, Lord, open unto us." But he answered and said; "Verily I say unto you, I know you not." Watch, therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.

124- IMPORTUNITY.

In prayer taught.

Which of you shall have a friend and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him;

"Friend, lend me three loaves, for a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him? And he from within shall answer, and say; "Trouble me not; the door is now shut, and my chil dren are now with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee." I say unto thee, though he will not rise and give him because he is his friend. Yet because of his importunity he will arise and give him as many as he needeth. And I say unto you, ask and it shall be given you; seek and ye shall find; knock and it shall be opened.

O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets and stonest them that are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not! An evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonah; for as Jonah was three days and three nights in the whale's belly, so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

Mat. 12: 39.

To the disciples,—Galilee.

Did not really keep Moses' law.

Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? Why go ye about to kill me? * * I have done one work and ye all marvel. Moses therefore gave unto you circumcision, (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers), and ye on the Sabbath day circumcise a man. If a man on the Sabbath day receive circumcision that the law of Moses should not be broken, are ye angry at me because I have made a man every whit whole on the Sabbath day? Jno. 7: 19, 21.

To the Jews,—Jerusalem.

Did not truly believe Moses.

Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father; there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust. For had ye believed Moses ye would have believed me; for he wrote of me. But if ye believed not his writings, how shall ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words? Jno. 5: 45.

Did not keep the commandments.

Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition? For God commanded, saying; "Honor thy father and mother, and whosoever curseth father or mother let him die the death." But ye say whosoever shall say to his father or his mother it is a gift by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me, and honor not his father or his mother, he shall be free; thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect, by your tradition, ye hypocrites. Well did Isaiah prophesy of you, saying; "This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, but their heart is far from me. But in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines, the commandments of men. Mat. 15: 2.

Were to have the gospel offer first.

Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not; but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. Mat. 10: 5.

To the Twelve,—Galilee.

Rejected the Gospel offer.

Hear another parable. There was a certain householder who planted a vineyard and hedged it round about, and digged a winepress in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country. And when the time for the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen that they might receive the fruits of it. And the husbandmen took his servants and beat one and killed another, and stoned another. Again he sent other servants, more than the first; and they did unto them likewise. But last of all he sent unto them his own son, saying, they will reverence my son. But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves; "This is the heir, come let us kill him and let us seize on his inheritance." And they caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him. When the lord, therefore, of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen? Did ye never read in the Scriptures, "The stone which the builders rejected the same is become the head of the corner? This is the Lord's doings and it is marvellous in our eyes. Therefore say I unto you; "The kingdom of heaven shall be taken from you and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof." Mat. 21: 33.

To Chief Priests and Elders,—Jerusalem.

Did not know God because they rejected Christ.

If I honor myself my honor is nothing; it is my Father that honoreth me; of whom ye say that he is your God. Yet ye have not known him; but I know him; and if I should say; "I know him not," I shall be a liar like unto you; but I know him, and keep his saying. Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day; and he saw it and was glad. Jno. 8: 54.

Fatally misjudged Christ.

Though I bear record of myself yet my record is true; for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye cannot tell whence I came and whither I go. * * I am one that bear witness of myself, and the Father that sent me beareth witness of me. * * Ye neither know me nor my Father; if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.

Jno. 8: 14, 18.

Turned away from the truth.

I speak to them in parables because they seeing, see not; and hearing, they hear not; neither do they understand. And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah, which saith, by hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive. For this people's heart is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing; and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and should hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them. Mat. 13: 13.

Their blindness.

If I tell you, ye will not believe. And if I also ask you, ye will not answer me nor let me go. Luke 22: 67.

To Chief Priests,—Jerusalem.

Christ came to judge them.

For judgment I am come into this world, that they who see not might see, and that they who see might be made blind. * * If ye were blind ye should have no sin; but now ye say; "We see," therefore your sin remaineth. Jno. 9: 39, 41.

Condemned for rejecting Christ.

If God were your Father, ye would love me; for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me. Why do ye not understand my speech? Even because ye cannot hear my word. Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning. and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie he speaketh of his own; for he is a liar and the father of it. And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not. Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth why do ye not believe me? He that is of God heareth God's words. Ye therefore hear them not because ye are not of God.

Jno. 8: 42.

To the Jews,—Jerusalem.

I know that ye are Abraham's seed, but ye seek to kill me because my word hath no place in you. I speak that which I have seen with my Father; and ye do that which ye have seen with your father.

Jno. 8: 37.

I go my way, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins; whither I go ye cannot come * * Ye are from beneath; I am from above; ye are of this world; I am not of this world. I said therefore unto you that ye shall die in your sins; for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins. * * * * Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning.

I have many things to say and to judge of you; but he that sent me is true; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him. Jno. 8: 21, 23.

Ye both know me and ye know whence I am; and I am not come of myself, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not, but I know him for I am from him, and he hath sent me. Jno. 7: 28.

Those not receiving Christ were not the spiritual seed of Abraham.

If ye were Abraham's children ye would do the works of Abraham. But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth which I have heard of God; this did not Abraham. Ye do the deeds of your father. Jno, 8: 39.

A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none. Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard; "behold these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree and find none; cut it down, why cumbereth it the ground." And he answering, said: "Lord let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it and dung it; and if it bear fruit, well; and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down.

To the disciples,—Perea.

Rigorous, and ungodly, and proud.

The Scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat, all therefore, whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do; but do not ye after their works, for they say and do not. For they bind heavy burdens, and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers. But all their works they do to be seen of men; they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments, and love the uppermost rooms at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets, and to be called of men, "Rabbi, Rabbi." Mat. 23: 2.

To the multitude,—Jerusalem.

The disciples warned against.

Take heed and beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the Sadducees. * * O ye of little faith why reason ye among yourselves because ye have bought no bread? Do ye not understand, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up; neither the seven loaves of the four thousand and how many baskets ye took up? How is it that ye do not understand that I spake it not unto you concerning bread, that ye should beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the Sadducees.

Mat. 16 : 6.

Their destruction foretold.

When ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh. Then let them who are in Judea, flee to the mountains; and let them who are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them who are in the countries enter thereinto, for these be the days of ven geance, that all things that are written may be fulfilled. But woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days; for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people. And they shall fall by the edge of the sword and shall be led away captive into all nations; and Jerusalem shall be trod den down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

Luke 21 : 20.

Daughters of Jerusalem weep not for me but weep for yourselves and for your chil dren. For behold the days are coming in the which they shall say; "Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck. Elijah.—Forerunner.

Was greater than a prophet.

What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind? But what went ye out to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold they that wear soft clothing are in king's houses. But what went ye out to see? A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and more than a prophet. Mat. 11 : 7.

To the multitude,—Capernaum.

Was the expected Elijah.

This is he of whom it is written; "Behold I send my messenger before thy face, who shall prepare thy way before thee." Verily I say unto thee among them that are born of woman there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist; notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. And from the days of John the Baptist, until now, the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force; for all the prophets and the law prophesied until John and if ye will receive it this is Elijah who was to come; who hath ears to hear let him hear. .

Jesus knew his character.

I speak not of you all; I know whom I have chosen; but that the scripture may be fulfilled; "He that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me." Now I tell you before it come, that when it is come to pass ye may believe that I am he. * * Verily, verily, I say unto you that one of you shall betray me. * * He it is to whom I shall give a sop when I have dipped it. * * That thou doest do quickly. Then shall the righteous answer him, saying; "Lord, when saw we thee an hungered, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink? When saw we thee a stranger and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee? or when saw we thee sick or in prison, and came unto thee?" And the king shall answer and say unto them; "Verily, I say unto you, inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me." Then shall he say, also unto them on the left hand; "Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels; for I was an hungered and ye gave me no meat; I was thirsty and ye gave me no drink; I was a stranger and ye took me not in; naked, and ye clothed me not; sick and in prison, and ye visited me not." Then shall they, also, answer him, saying; "Lord, when saw we thee an hungered, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee?" Then shall he answer them, saying; "Verily I say unto you, inasmuch as ye did it not unto one of the least of these, ye did it not to me." I give tithes of all that I possess." And the publican standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying; "God be merciful to me a sinner." And likewise a Levite, when he was at that place, came and looked on him and passed by on the other side. But a certain Samaritan as he journeyed came where he was; and when he saw him he had compassion on him, and went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. And on the morrow when he departed he took out two pence and gave them to the host and said unto him;

It is a growth.

So is the kingdom of heaven as if a man should cast seed into the ground, and should sleep and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up he knoweth not how. For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, then the full corn in the ear. But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle; because the harvest is come. Mark 4: 20.

The kingdom of heaven is like leaven which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal till the whole was leavened. Mat. 13: 33.

Like a plant.

The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took and sowed in his field; which indeed is the least of all seeds; but when it is grown it is the

The kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field. Mat. 13: 44.

The kingdom of heaven is like a net that was cast into the sea and gathered of every kind, which when it was full they drew to shore and sat down and gathered the good into vessels but cast the bad away. Mat. 13: 47.

The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man who sowed good seed in his field; but while men slept his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way. In giving, forbidden.

Take heed that ye do not your alms before men to be seen of them; otherwise ye have no reward of your Father who is in heaven. Wherefore when thou doest thine alms do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you they have their reward. But when thou doest alms let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth, that thine alms may be in secret; and thy Father who seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly. Mat. 6: 1.

In worship forbidden.

But when ye pray use not vain repetitions as the heathen do; for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking. And ye shall be betrayed both by parents and brethren, and kinfolks and friends; and some of you shall they cause to be put to death. And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake. The saints secure.

All that the Father giveth me shall come to me, and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. For I came down from heaven not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me. And this is the Father's will who hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again on the last day. And this is the will of him who sent me, that every one who seeth the Son and believeth on him, may have everlasting life; and I will raise him up at the last day. Jno. 6 : 37.

When thou prayest, enter into thy closest, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father who is in secret; and thy Father who seeth in secret shall reward thee openly. And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living. And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land, and he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country: and he sent him into his fields to feed swine. And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks which the swine did eat; and no man gave unto him. And when he came to himself he said; "How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger? I will arise and go to my father, and I will say unto him; "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before thee, and am no more worthy to be called thy son; make me as one of thy hired servants." And he arose and came to his father But when he was yet a great way off his father saw him, and had compassion and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him. And the son said unto him; "Father, I have sinned against heaven and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son." But the father said to his servants; "Bring forth the best robe and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet; and bring hither the fatted calf and kill it; and let us eat and be merry; for this my son was dead, and is alive again, he was lost and is found." Take heed that no man deceive you, for many shall come in my name, saying ; " I am Christ," and shall deceive many. And ye shall hear of wars and rumors of wars ; see that ye be not troubled, for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet ; for nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom ; and there shall be famines and pestilences, and earthquakes in divers places. All these are the beginning of sorrows. Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted ; and shall kill you ; and ye shall be hated of all nations, for my name's sake. And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another. And many false prophets shall arise, and shall deceive many, and because iniquity shall abound the love of many shall wax cold. But he that shall endure unto the end the same shall be saved.

Mat. 24: 4.

The gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all the nations, and then shall the end come. When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation spoken of by Daniel, the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth let him understand) then let them who are in Judea flee into the mountains; let him who is on the housetop not come down to take anything out of his house; neither let him that is in the field return back to take his clothes; and woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days! But pray ye that your flight be not in winter, neither on the Sabbath day; for then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time; no, nor ever shall be. And except those days should be shortened there should no flesh be saved; but for the elects sake those days shall be shortened. Then if any man shall say to you, "Lo, here is Christ," or, "there," believe it not. For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall show great signs and wonders; insomuch that if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect. Mat. 24: 14.

Wherefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men and Scribes; and some of them ye shall kill and crucify; and some of them ye shall scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city, that upon you may come all the righteous blood, shed upon the earth from the blood of righteous Abel, unto the blood of Zacharias, son of Barachias, whom ye slew between the temple and the alter. Verily, I say unto you, all these things shall come upon this generation.

Mat. 23: 34.

To Scribes and Pharisees,—Jerusalem.

Of the end of the world.

Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken; and then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven; and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven, with power and great glory. And he shall send his angels, with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other. Mat. 24: 29.

Fulfilled.

Thou Capernaum which art exalted unto heaven shalt be brought down to hell; for if the mighty works which have been done in thee had been done in Sodom it would have remained until this day.

Mat. 11: 23.

To the multitude,—Capernaum.

190. PROSELYTING.

Condemned.

Woe unto you Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made ye make him two fold more the child of hell than yourselves. Mat. 23: 15.

To Scribes and Pharisees,—Jerusalem.

191. PROVIDENCE.

Special.

Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father. But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows. Mat. 10: 29.

To the Twelve,—Galilee.

Sudden need not affright us.

Be of good cheer, it is I, be not afraid. Mat. 14: 27.

To Peter,—Lake Galilee.

192. PUBLIC.

Is fickle.

Whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the market place, and calling unto their fellows and saying: "We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you and ye have not lamented," for John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say; "He hath a devil." The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say; "Behold a man gluttonous, and a wine-bibber, a friend of publicans and sinners!" But wisdom is justified of her children.

Mat. 11 : 16.

To the multitude,—Capernaum.

193. PUNISHMENT.

Chastisement.

Of the wicked.

The children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Mat. 8: 12.

When the Centurion came to him,—at Capernaum.

Hopelessness.

He cried and said; "Father Abraham have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am tormented in this flame." But Abraham said; "Between us and you is a great gulf fixed, so that they who would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence." Luke 16: 24.

To the disciples,—Perea.

The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of, and shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

For not accepting Christ.

If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them and cast them into the fire and they are burned. John 15: 6.

Jerusalem.

Of unfaithfulness.

And another came, saying: "Lord, behold here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin; for I feared thee, because thou art an an austere man; thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow." And he said unto him; "Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow; wherefore, then, gavest not thou my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury?" And he said unto them that stood by; "Take from him the pound and give it unto him that hath ten pounds, for I say unto you, that unto every one that hath shall be given; and from him that hath not even that he hath shall be taken away. But those mine enemies who would not that I should reign over them, bring hither and slay them before me.

Luke 19: 20.

To the disciples,—Jericho.

Degrees of, taught.

That servant who knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes. But he that knew not and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required; and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more.

197. RELIGION.

Piety.—Sanctity.

Not all emotional, but well grounded.

He that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it; yet hath he no root in himself but dureth for awhile, for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended. Mat. 13: 20.

To the disciples,—Galilee.

Consists not in forms.

Ye are the salt of the earth; but if the salt have lost his savor, wherewith shall it be salted? It is henceforth good for noth-

To the multitude,—Galilee.

I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. Mark 2: 17.
To Scribes and Pharisees,—Capernaum.

Essential to salvation.

Suppose ye that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans because they suffered such things. I tell ye nay; but except ye repent ye shall all likewise perish.

Or those eighteen upon whom the tower of Siloam fell and slew them; think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem? I tell you nay; but except ye repent ye shall all likewise perish. Luke 13: 2.
To the multitude,—Galilee.

It is fearful to neglect.

What think ye? A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said; "Son, go work to-day in my vineyard." He answered and said; "I will not," but afterward he repented and went. And he came to the second and said likewise; and he answered and said, "I go sir," and went not. Whether of them twain did the will of his father? * * Verily I say unto you, that the publicans and harlots go into the kingdom of God before you, for John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him; but the publicans and the harlots believed him; and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward that ye might believe him. Mat. 21: 28.

To the Sadducees,—Jerusalem.

Of both the saved and the lost.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, the hour is coming and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God, and they that hear shall live. * * The hour is coming in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, and shall come forth; they that have done good unto the resurrection of life, and they that have done evil unto the rerurrection of damnation. Blessed are they who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are ye when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely for my sake.

Rejoice and be exceeding glad, for great is your reward in heaven, for so persecuted they the prophets who were before you.

Mat. 5: 3–12.

Sermon on the Mount,—near Capernaum.

For Christians.

Verily, I say unto you, that ye who have followed me in the regeneration, when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. And every one that hath forsaken houses or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundred fold, and shall inherit everlasting life. Mat. 19 : 28.

To the disciples,—Perea.

Ye are they who have continued with me in my temptations. And I appoint unto you a kingdom as my Father hath appointed unto me; that ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel. Luke 22 : 28.

To the disciples,—Jerusalem.

It came to pass that when he was returned having received the kingdom, then he commanded those servants to be called unto him to whom he had given his money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading. Then came the first, saying ; " Lord, thy pound hath gained thee ten pounds." And he said unto him ; " Well, thou good servant, because thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities." And the second one came, saying; "Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds." And he said likewise to him. "Be thou also over five cities." * * I say unto you, that unto every one that hath shall be given, and from him that hath not even that he hath shall be taken away. Luke 19: 15, 26.

To the disciples,—Jericho.

According to works.

The Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to his works. Verily, I say unto you, there be some standing here who shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom. Mat. 16: 27.

To the disciples,—Cæsarea Philippi.

204. RICHES.

Abundance.—Fullness.—Plenty.—Wealth.

Woes against.

Woe unto you that are rich, for ye have received your consolation. Luke 6: 24.

Sermon on the Mount,—near Capernaum.

Are far less than salvation.

What is a man profited if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul? Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? Mat. 16: 26.

To the disciples,—Cæsarea Philippi.

Not a help to piety.

Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God!

Mark 10: 24.

To the disciples,—Perea.

He that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful. Mat. 13: 22.

To the disciples,—Lake Galilee.

Are not to rule.

No man can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one, and love the other, or else he will hold to the one and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

Mat. 6: 24.

Sermon on the Mount,—near Capernaum.

Lay not up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt and where thieves break through and steal; but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal; for where your treasure is there will your heart be also.

Mat. 6: 19.

Possessors to be strictly judged.

Verily, I say unto you that a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven.

And again I say unto you it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible,

Mat. 19: 23.

To the disciples,—Perea.

Jno. 3: 18.

To Nicodemus,—Jerusalem.

Verily, verily, I say unto you. He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life. Mat. 5: 24.

To the multitude,—Jerusalem.

207. SABBATH.

Lord's Day.—Sunday.

Not a rigorous day.

Have ye not read in the law how that on the Sabbath days the priests in the temple profane the temple and are blameless? But I say unto you that in this place is one greater than the temple. But if ye had known what this meaneth; "I will have mercy and not sacrifice," ye would not have condemned the guiltless, for the Son of man is Lord even of the Sabbath day.

Mat. 12: 5.

To the Pharisees,—on the way to Galilee.

All good to be done on the.

Stand forth. Is it lawful to do good on the Sabbath day, or to do evil? To save life or to kill? Mark 3: 3.

To the Pharisees,—Capernaum.

What man shall there be among you that shall have one sheep and if it fall into a pit on the Sabbath day will he not lay hold on it and lift it out? How much then is a man better than a sheep? Wherefore it is lawful to do well on the Sabbath days. Mat. 12: 11.

To the Pharisees,—on the way to Galilee.

Have ye never read what David did when he had need and was a hungered, he and they that were with him? How he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar the high priest and did eat the shewbread which is not lawful to eat but for the priests, and gave also to them that were with him. Mark 2: 25.

To the Pharisees,—Galilee.

The Sabbath day was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath. Mark 2: 27.

Great tenacity wrong.

Thou hypocrite, doth not each one of you on the Sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall and lead him away to water? And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo! these eighteen years be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath day?

Are our gain.

If any man will come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me, for whosoever will save his life shall lose it; and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find it. Mat. 16: 24.

209. SALVATION.

Redemption.—Regeneration.

Is in Christ only.

I am the way, the truth, and the life; no man cometh to the Father but by me.
Jno. 14: 6.

To the disciples,—Jerusalem.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that entereth not by the door into the sheep fold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. But he that entereth in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep; to him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice; and he calleth his own sheep by name and leadeth them out. And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him; for they know his voice. And a stranger they will not follow, but will flee from him; for they know not the voice of strangers. Jno. 10: 1.

To the multitude,—Capernaum.

A study.

When ye see a cloud rise out of the west, straightway ye say; "There cometh a shower," and so it is. And when ye see the south wind blow, ye say; "There will be heat," and it cometh to pass. Ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky, and of the earth, but how is it that ye do not discern this time? Luke 12: 54.

To the multitude,—Lake Galilee.

A careful matter.

Enter ye in at the straight gate, for wide is the gate, and broad is the way that leadeth to destruction, and many there be who go in thereat; because strait is the gate and narrow is the way which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

211. SATAN.

Beelzebub.—Devil.

Personality and work.

If Satan cast out Satan he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand? And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your children cast them out? Therefore they shall be your judges. But if I cast out devils by the spirit of God then the kingdom of God is come unto you. Or else how can one enter a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind a strong man, and then he will spoil his house? Mat. 12: 27.

To the Pharisees,—in Galilee.

He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man; the field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one; the enemy that sowed them is the devil. Mat. 13: 37.

A crafty enemy.

The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man who sowed good seed in his field; but while men slept his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat and went his way.

Mat. 13: 24.

To the disciples,—near Capernaum.

Hinders the word.

When any one heareth the word of the kingdom and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one and catcheth away that which was sown in the heart. This is he who received seed by the wayside.
Mat. 13: 19.

To the disciples,—Lake Galilee.

Is overcome.

Now is the judgment of this world; now shall the prince of this world be cast out.
Jno. 12: 30.

212. SCRIPTURES.

Bible.—Gospel.—Word.

Belief commanded.

The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent ye and believe the gospel. Mark 1: 15.

To the multitude,—Galilee.

To reject is fearful.

Woe unto thee Chorazin! Woe unto thee Bethsaida! for if the mighty works which were done in you had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. But I say unto you; "It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment than for you." * *

Thou Capernaum which art exalted unto heaven shall be brought down to hell; for if the mighty works which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom it would have remained unto this day. But I say unto you, it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment than for you. Mat. 11; 21, 23.

To the multitude,—Capernaum.

Responsibility of hearing.

Whosoever shall not receive you nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city shake off the dust of your feet. Verily I say unto you; "It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for you. Mat. 10: 14.

To the Twelve,—Galilee.

Satan hinders.

Hear ye therefore the parable of the sower. When any one heareth the word of the kingdom and understandeth it not then cometh the wicked one and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he who received seed by the wayside.

Mat. 13: 18.
To the disciples,—Lake Galilee.

Requires thoughtfulness.

He that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it, yet hath he not root in himself, but dureth for awhile; for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word by and by he is offended.
Mat. 13: 20.

Merits respect.

When ye come into a house salute it, and if the the house be worthy let your peace come upon it, but if it be not worthy let your peace return to you. Mat. 10: 11.
To the Twelve,—Galilee.

Importance of.

Blessed are they that hear the word of God and keep it. Luke 11: 28.
To the multitude,—Galilee.

Search the Scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life, and they are they which testify of me. Jno. 5: 39.
Jerusalem.

Do not ye therefore err because ye know not the Scriptures? Mark 12: 24.
To the Sadducees.

It is written; "Man shall not live by bread alone but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. Mat. 4: 4.
To Satan,—at the Temptation.

Way of life.

Sanctify them through thy truth; thy word is truth. * * Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also who shall believe on me through their word.
Jno. 17: 17, 20.
Last prayer with the disciples,—Jerusalem.

Should be fruitful.

He that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; who also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some a hundred fold, some sixty, some thirty. Mat. 13: 23.
To the multitude.—Capernaum.

Security in obedience.

Whosoever heareth these sayings of mine and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man who built his house upon a rock. And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house, and it fell not, for it was founded upon a rock. Mat. 7: 24.
Sermon on the Mount,—near Capernaum.

I know ye are Abraham's seed, but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you. Jno. 8: 37.
To the Jews,—Jerusalem.

Christ referred to.

It is written; "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God."

It is written again; "Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God."

It is written; "Thou shalt worship the Lord, thy God, and him only shalt thou serve." Mat. 4: 4, 7, 10.

To Satan,—at the temptation.

Seem at times powerless.

Behold a sower went forth to sow, and as he sowed some seeds fell by the wayside and the fowls came and devoured them up; some fell among stony places where they had not much earth, and forthwith they sprung up because they had no deepness of earth, and when the sun was up they were scorched and because they had no root they withered away; and some fell among thorns, and the thorns sprang up and choked them; and other fell into good ground and brought forth fruit, some a hundred fold, some sixty fold, some thirty fold. Who hath ears to hear let him hear. Mat. 13: 3.

To the disciples,—Lake Galilee.

213. SECURITY.

Confidence.—Safety.

Of the Christian.

Whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, who built his house upon a rock. And the rain descended and the floods came and the winds blew, and beat upon that house, and it fell not, for it was founded upon a rock. Mat, 7: 24.

Sermon on the Mount,—near Capernaum.

Is in the way of duty.

Let us go into Judea again. * * Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walk in the day he stumbleth not, because there is no light in him.

Jno. 11: 17.

To the disciples,—Bethany.

I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. My Father who gave them me is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand. Jno, 10: 28.

To the Jews,—Jerusalem.

Amid trial.

When they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye shall speak, for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak, for it is not ye that speak, but the spirit of your Father who speaketh in you.

Mat. 10: 19.

To the Twelve,—Galilee.

214. SELF-DENIAL.

Of Christ.

Foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. Mat. 8: 19.

To a Scribe,—Capernaum.

Essential.

If any man will come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross daily, and follow me. For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it. Luke 9: 23.

To the disciples,—Cæsarea Philippi,

Follow me. Let the dead bury the dead. Mat. 8: 21.

To a disciple,—Capernaum.

If any man come to me and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. And whosoever doth not bear his cross and come after me cannot be my disciple. Luke 14: 26.

To the multitude,—Perea.

Sometimes rigid.

If thy right eye offend thee pluck it out and cast it from thee; for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell. And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off and cast it from thee; for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

Mat. 5: 29.

Sermon on the Mount,—near Capernaum.

If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven; and come and follow me. Mat. 19: 21.

To the rich young man,—Perea.

Is entire consecration.

The kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field, the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field. Again the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant-man seeking goodly pearls; who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had and bought it.

Mat. 13: 44.

To the multitude,—near Capernaum.

Shall be rewarded.

Verily, I say unto you, there is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel's, but he shall receive a hundred fold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come, eternal life. Mark 10: 29.

To the disciples,—Perea.

A careful matter.

Whosoever doth not bear his cross and come after me cannot be my disciple. For which of you intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it? Lest haply after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him, saying; "This man began to build and was not able to finish." Or what king going to war against another king sitteth not down first and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand, to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand? Or else while the other is a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage and desireth conditions of peace. So likewise whosoever he be of you, that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple. Luke 14: 27.

To the Pharisees,—Perea.

The poor widow.

Of a truth I say unto you that this poor widow hath cast in more than they all; for all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God; but she of her penury hast cast in all the living that she had.

Luke 21: 4.

To the multitude,—Jerusalem.

215. SELF-EXAMINATION.

Necessary, to worship.

If thou bring thy gift to the altar and there rememberest that thy brother hath aught against thee, leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift. Mat. 5: 25.

Sermon on the Mount,—near Capernaum.

To be thorough.

If thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out and cast it from thee; for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell. And if thy right hand offend thee cut it off and cast it from thee; for it is profitable for thee, that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.
Mat. 5: 29.

216. SELFISHNESS.

Self-Love.

Forbidden.

You know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them. But it shall not be so among you; but whosoever will be great among you let him be your minister; and whosoever will be chief among you let him be your servant.

Mat. 20 : 25.

To the Apostles,—Perea.

No good in it.

If ye love them who love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them. And if ye do good to them who do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same. And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again. But love ye your enemies and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest; for he is kind unto the unthankful and the evil. Luke 6 : 32.

Sermon on the Mount,—near Capernaum.

217. SELF-RIGHTEOUSNESS.

A failure.

Many will say to me in that day; "Lord Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? And in thy name have cast out devils? And in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them

"I never knew you; depart from me, ye that work iniquity." Mat. 7: 22.

Sermon on the Mount,—near Capernaum.

An abomination to God.

Ye are they who justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts; for that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God.

Luke 16: 15.

To the Pharisees.—Perea.

Warning against.

Woe unto you Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess. Thou blind Pharisee cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also. Woe unto you Scribes, Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto whited sepulchres which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones and of all uncleanness. Even so ye also, outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity. Woe unto you Scribes, Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous, and say; "If we had been in the days of our fathers we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets." Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves that ye are the children of them who killed the prophets. Mat. 23: 29.

To Scribes and Pharisees,—Jerusalem.

Verily, I say unto you; "That the publicans and harlots go into the kingdom of God before you." For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not; but the publicans and the harlots believed him; and ye when ye had seen it, repented not afterward that ye might believe him. Mat. 21: 31.

See Hypocrisy, 121.

218. SENSATIONALISM.

Reproved.

What went ye out in the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind? But what went out ye to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold they that wear soft clothing are in king's houses. But what went ye out to see? A prophet. Mat. 11: 7.

To the multitude,—Capernaum.

219. SEPARATION.

Of the saved from the lost.

I say unto you that many shall come from the east and the west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven; but the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. Mat. 8: 11.

To the disciples,—Capernaum.

And these shall go away into everlasting punishment; but the righteous into life eternal. Mat. 25: 46.

To the disciples,—Mount of Olives.

The Son of man shall send forth his angels and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend and them who do iniquity; and shall cast them into a furnace of fire; there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Mat. 13: 41.

To the disciples,—near Capernaum.

So shall it be at the end of the world; the angels shall come forth and sever the wicked from the just; and shall cast them into the furnace of fire; there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. Mat. 13: 19.

There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob and and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out. Luke 13: 28.

To the multitude,—Perea.

220. SICKNESS.

Disease.—Illness.

Related to sin.

Why reason ye these things in your heart? Whether is it easier to say unto the sick of the palsy: "Thy sins be forgiven thee;" or to say; "Arise and take up thy bed and walk." But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins. * * I say unto thee arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way, into thine house." Mark 2: 8.

Blessed are they that mourn for they shall be comforted. Mat. 5: 4.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, that ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice; and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow because her hour is come; but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world. And now therefore ye have sorrow; but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you. Jno. 16: 20.

To the disciples,—Cæsarea Philippi.

May be lost.

Fear not them who kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul; but rather fear him who is able to destroy both soul and in hell. Mat. 10: 28.

To the Twelve,—Galilee.

224. SOVEREIGNTY.

Dominion.—Supremacy.

I tell you of a truth many widows are in Israel, in the days of Elijah, the prophet, when the heaven was shut up three years, and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land; but unto none of them was Elijah sent, save unto Serepta, a city of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow. To the multitude,—Jerusalem.

Life less than Christ.

He that findeth his life shall lose it, and he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it.

Mat. 10: 39.

To the disciples,—Galilee.

God judges.

Son remember that thou in thy life time, receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things; but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.

Luke 16: 25.

To the Pharisees,—Perea.

I will say to my soul; "Soul thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry." But God said unto him; "Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee; then whose shall those things be which thou hast provided? Luke 12; 19.

To the multitude,—Galilee.

Woe unto you that are full! for ye shall hunger. Woe unto you that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep. Woe unto you when all men shall speak well of you, for so did their fathers to the false prophets. Luke 6: 25.

Sermon on the Mount,—near Capernaum.

Warning against.

Take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares. Luke 21: 34.

To the disciples,—Mount of Olives.

I say unto you, take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment? Behold the fowls of the air; for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

Mat. 6: 25.

Sermon on the Mount.—near Capernaum.

See Covetousness, 17.

259. WORSHIP.

Adoration.—Reverence.—Veneration.

Only God.

It is written thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

Mat. 4: 10.

To Satan,—in the Temptation.

Christ's zeal for the Temple.

It is written my house shall be called the house of prayer, but ye have made it a den of thieves. Mat. 21: 13.

To the Jews,—in the Temple.

Not confined to place.

Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father. Ye worship ye know not what. We know what we worship, for salvation is of the Jews. But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshipers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth; for the Father seeketh such to worship him. God is a Spirit, and they that worship him, must worship him in spirit and in truth. Jno. 4: 21.

To the woman of Samaria.—Shechem.

Not to be made secular.

Take these things hence, make not my Father's house a house of merchandise.
Jno. 2: 16.

To the Jews,—in the Temple,—Jerusalem.

Of Christ.

If any man serve me let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be; if any man serve me, him will my Father honor. Jno. 12: 26.

To certain Greeks,—Jerusalem.

All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Mat. 28: 18.

To the five hundred,—Galilee.

Must be with entire good will to all.

If thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath aught against thee, leave there thy gift and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.
Mat. 5: 23.

Sermon on the Mount,—near Capernaum.

260. WRATH.

Indignation.

God's.

When the king heard thereof he was wroth, and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city.
Mat. 22: 7.

To Chief Priests and Elders,—Jerusalem.

261. YEARNING.

Of Christ over Jerusalem.

O, Jerusalem, Jerusalem! thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them that were sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ye would not. Mat. 23: 37.

In soliloquy,—near Jerusalem.

For his followers.

I pray for them; I pray not for the world, but for them whom thou hast given me; for they are thine. Jno. 17: 9.

Last prayer with the disciples,—Jerusalem.

I pray not that thou shouldst take them out of the world, but that thou shouldst keep them from the evil. Jno. 17: 15.

That they all may be one; as thou, Father art in me, and I in thee; that they also may be one in us; that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. Jno. 17: 21.

Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me; for thou lovedst me before the foundations of the world. O righteous Father, the world hath not known thee; but I have known thee; and these have known that thou hast sent me.

Jno. 17: 24.

262. YOUNG CONVERTS.

Must not be judged as those older.

No man putteth a piece of new cloth into an old garment; for that which is put in to fill it up taketh away from the garment and the rent is made worse Feither do men put new wine into old bottles; else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out and the bottles perish; but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved. Mat. 9: 16.

To Matthew's dinner guests,—Capernaum.
